

2009 CS&H ITB Conference Program

16th and 17th July at the Jasper Hotel
489 Elizabeth St Melbourne.

Thursday 16 July 2009

8:30		Registrations
9:15	Conference Welcome	Chairperson, CS&H ITB
9:30	Key Note: Dr Martyn Newman, CEO, Roche Martin	Emotional intelligence (EI) and leadership
10:20		Morning Tea
10:50	Keynote: Mr Simon McKeon, Executive Chairman, Melbourne Office, Macquarie Group Limited	Sustainable futures, World Vision, Creating and Building Skills
11:40		WORKSHOP SESSION A
	(A1) Helen Bryant, National Disability Services (NDS)	(A2) Catherine Fraser, Maree Ireland and Deb McKenzie (field)	(A3) Carol Jewell (Melbourne Health) and Robyn Jones SUT	(A4) Dr Ann Kennedy, Chair, Community Child Care	(A5) Ros Kempton & Di Deppler, East Gippsland TAFE
	Emotional intelligence in practice	Creating Sustainable Futures: Direct Support – It's About More than the Money	Partnering for allied health assistants outcomes	A vision for children's services: implications for industry and for training providers	AOD Skills Development, meeting the needs of learners in remote communities
12:45		Lunch
1:40	Keynote: Dr Craig Fry, Senior Research Fellow, Centre for Applied Philosophy & Public Ethics, Melbourne University	Models of identity and participation in public health policy and practice: Ethical implications
2:30		Afternoon Tea
3:00		WORKSHOP SESSION B
	(B1) Dr Craig Fry, University of Melbourne	(B2) Sarah Bird, DHS	(B3) Jenny Gordon, Tilly Waite and Catherine Jones, Wodonga TAFE	(B4) Sue Wilson, Northeast Health, Wangaratta and Natasha McCormick, GOTAFE	(B5) Irwyn Shepherd & Lyn Taylor, Box Hill Institute
	Making health values and ethics public: Applied codes of ethics gather no dust	The Health Assistant Workforce: Where from and where to?	Partnerships in regional health training	To boldly go...	Developing industry partnerships using simulation
4:00		Close of proceedings

2009 CS&H ITB Conference Program

16th and 17th July at the Jasper Hotel
489 Elizabeth St Melbourne.

Friday 17 July 2009

9:00	Registrations	Coffee on arrival
9:15	Opening Day 2: Welcome and summary	Jacquie O'Brien, CEO, CS&H ITB
9:30	Key Note: Lynne Wannan AM, Director, Office for the Community Sector, Department of Planning and Community Development	Sustainability of the not-for-profit Community Sector
10:20	Keynote: Stuart Taylor, Managing Director, Resilience Institute Australia	Building Resilience for Health, Happiness and Performance
11:10		Morning Tea
11:40		WORKSHOP SESSION C
	(C1) Leonie Morgan, Office for the Community Sector, DPCD	(C2) Stuart Taylor, Resilience Institute	(C3) Yvonne Evans, Mt Beauty Neighbourhood Centre, Inc.	(C4) Jane Gustus-Callanan, BRIT
	Not-for-profit Community Sector initiatives	Building Resilience for Health, Happiness and Performance	Building workforce capabilities through recognition	Rapid recognition...Real Outcomes For Industry
12:40	Closing Plenary	Margaret Barrett, Chairperson Lunch		